"Fine show," was the verdict heard from everyone who visited the Audifrom everyone who visited the Anti-torium during the present week, and the management have more than made up for the little disappointment of the opening week, and the bill booked for the coming week bids fair to eclipse the present offering.

A clever team of European acrobats

A clever team of European acrossis and pantominists are Clotilda and Montrose, whose dumb comedy and clever tumbling will, no doubt, be generously received. A unique offering is Cooper, whose production, "A Day in a Barber Shop," will amuse the children particularly, as well as their elders. Mr. Cooper is the only colored ventriloquist in vaudeville, and his sensis in this particular line are few. equals in this particular line are few, and his superiors none. Billy Coden and Cassie Clifford are a pair of lively wooden sine shufflers, who introduce a neat routine of singing and dancing, which, combined with their natty appearance, goes to make up a most refined specialty of eighten minutes of solid entertainment.

Sidney & McDonald company present the one-act musical comedictta, entitled "Fleurette," or "The Yale Graduate and His Friend." This is a high class comedy effort, presented by two capable performers, who intro-duce some novel character work. The songs selected by Miss Edwards for the first three days of next week are songs selected by also Lowards for the first three days of next week are. BROADWAY THEATER. The World and a Woman.

Felicitous results frequently are the outcome of jocular suggestions, as is pleasantly instanced in the case of Earl Burgess, whose splendid production of "The World and a Woman." Joseph Byron Totten's great play of the swirling, hurrying life of today, will be presented at the Broadway the

"Have you any ideas of particular brilliancy to offer in connection with the production of your play." asked the manager, at the conclusion of the final business arrangements with the playwright.

final business arrangements with the playwright.
"Nothing, except that it would tickle me immeasurably in the place that start laughter with me, if you would engage for the principal roles only players who have headed their own companies," was the locose response. "It shall be done," returned Mr. Burgess, briefly, to the astonishment of Mr. Totten.

Mr. Totten.
So, in consequence of the play-wright's little joke, the producer, who never breaks a promise, has placed in the case of "The World and a Woman" Miss Lansing Rowan, Miss Shirley Waters. Willis L. Robards, Anthony Carlingham and Charles A. Kyle, all of whom have played leading parts in high-class dramatic offerings.

The Great American Play-"Paid in Full."

"Paid in Full." Eugene Walter's graphic play of present day America, will be at the Broadway theater on Tuesday, September 14, when the Wagenhals & Kemper Co. offer it with a New York cast and production. Besond all question. "Paid in Full" is the strongest and most entertaining Grama-of the time. Its record is the theatrical wonder of the generation. This play of today produces so vivid an impressios, grips so powerfully one's sympathies and withal provides as enjoyable an entertainment, that it draws per-le back to see it time it draws pec ele back to see it time and again. The company now coming here has appeared in "Paid in Full" in New York. Therefore it is a New York cast. In this connection, there is a circumstance which bears out the exceptional popularity of "Paid in Full." All last season, and this year as well, four companies in addition to the original New York east, covered the country in "Paid in Full." covered the country in "Paid in Full." The New York run lasted two years. Still it was not sufficient to satisfy York's demand for the play. Con sequently, from time to time, all the other companies were taken into the Greater city and in this way each won the title of New York company. Sests on sale at the box office, Wauregan house, and Bisket, Pitcher & Co.'s on Saturday, September 11, at 9 o'clock.

BREED THEATER.

"Escaped from Andersonville," Thrilling War Story.

Throbbine with human interest, teeming with startling situations and overflowing with genuine merit, such is the picture now on exhibition at the Breed theater under the title of Escaped from Andersonville. The development of the last few years in the moving picture business has raised it from the trifling form of amusement, interesting chiefly because of its nov-eity, to a permanent business, and the added investment of millions of dollars of capital, and the employment of the best talent obtainable, make this form of amusement so important that it can hardly be overestimated. It is pictures like Escaped from Andersonville that have served to raise the standard of the motion picture business, and the triding expense necessary to witness these great pictures is the mediator that permits the most infallible events in our nation's great history to be presented before the masses, to be indelibly impressed upon their minds. This wonderful picture carries some of the strongest scenes known to the motion picture world, the tremendous escape in a wild switching engine that has been stolen and pursued by another, is a picture nover to be forgotten.

POETRY.

AN ANTIDOTE TO CARE Phink that the grass upon thy grave is Think that thou seest thine own empty The empty garments thou wast wont to The empty room where long thy heant hath been; Think that the lane, the meadow and the wood.

And mountain summit feel thy feet no more.

Nor the loud thoroughfare, nor seunding shore;
All mere blank space where thou thyself hath stood.

Amid this thought-created silence say To thy stripped soul, what am I now and where?

Then turn and face the petty narrowing care

ing care
Which has been gnawing thee for many a day.
And it will die as dies a wailing Lost in the selemn rour of bounding seas.

Thy kingdom come! Yes, bid it come, But when Thy kingdom first began On earth Thy kingdom was a home, A child, a woman and a man.

The child was in the midst thereof, O, blessed Jesus, hollest One! The center and the fount of love, Mary and Joseph's little Son. Wherever on the earth shall be A child, a woman and a man, Imaging that sweet trinity Wherewith Thy kingdom first bogan.

Establish there Thy kingdom! Yes. And o'er that trinity of love Send down as in Thy appointed day. The brooding spirit of Thy Dove! -Katharine Tynen Hinkson, in Sunday Magazine. VIEWS AND VARIETIES
